

Child Safety Staff Code of Conduct

Date: January 2021

All staff & volunteers of AUSTRALIAN DANCERS PROJECT are required to observe child safe principles and expectations for appropriate behaviour towards and in the company of children, as noted below.

All personnel of AUSTRALIAN DANCERS PROJECT are responsible for supporting the safety, participation, wellbeing, and empowerment of children by:

- adhering to AUSTRALIAN DANCERS PROJECT child safe policy at all times / upholding AUSTRALIAN DANCERS PROJECT statement of commitment to child safety at all time
- taking all reasonable steps to protect children from abuse
- treating everyone with respect

- listening and responding to the views and concerns of children, particularly if they are telling you that they or another child has been abused and/or are worried about their safety or the safety of another
- promoting the cultural safety, participation, and empowerment of Aboriginal children (for example, by never questioning an Aboriginal child's self-identification)

- promoting the cultural safety, participation, and empowerment of children with culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds (for example, by having a zero tolerance of discrimination)
- promoting the safety, participation, and empowerment of children with a disability (for example, during personal care activities)
- ensuring as far as practicable that adults are not left alone with a child
- reporting any allegations of child abuse to AUSTRALIAN DANCERS PROJECT Child Safety Officer: Bridie Clark (Artistic Director) and ensure any allegation to reported to the police or child protection
- reporting any child safety concerns to AUSTRALIAN DANCERS PROJECT Child Safety Officer: Bridie Clark (Artistic Director)
- if an allegation of child abuse is made, ensure as quickly as possible that the child(ren) are safe
- encouraging children to 'have a say' and participate in all relevant organisational activities where possible, especially on issues that are important to them.

Staff and volunteers must not:

- develop any 'special' relationships with children that could be favouritism (for example, the offering of gifts or special treatment for specific children)
- exhibit behaviours with children which may be construed as unnecessarily physical (for example inappropriate sitting on laps. Sitting on laps could be appropriate sometime, for example while reading a storybook to a small child in an open plan area)
- put children at risk of abuse (for example, by locking doors)
- do things of a personal nature that a child can do for themselves, such as toileting or changing clothes (except when helping changing clothes at performance specific days for children unable to do so themselves)
- use inappropriate language in the presence of children
- express personal views on cultures, race, or sexuality in the presence of children
- discriminate against any child, including because of culture, race, ethnicity, or disability
- have contact with a child or their family outside of our organisation without our child safety officer's knowledge and/or consent (for example, no babysitting). Accidental contact, such as seeing people in the street, is appropriate.
- have any online contact with a child or their family (unless necessary, for example providing families with e-newsletters)
- ignore or disregard any suspected or disclosed child abuse.

By observing these standards, you acknowledge your responsibility to immediately report any breach of this code to AUSTRALIAN DANCERS PROJECT Child Safety Officer Bridie Clark.

If you believe a child is at immediate risk of abuse phone 000.
